Dear St Mary's,

Rosh Hashanah is the Jewish head of the year. One of the customs is a fish head, which represents the head of the year, not the tail. Another custom is apple and honey, which means the year will be a sweet year.

Rosh Hashanah is happy and it is a lovely festival because you have a big feast with your friends.

Rosh Hashanah is not only happy but it is a day of judgement too.

It means that you judge the good and bad deeds.

Yours sincerely,

Shani
