MISSION STATEMENT

North Cheshire Jewish Primary offers a highly motivating and academic atmosphere where children are encouraged and supported to reach their full potential.

Children are confident and proud about their Judaism and have a strong identity regarding their own community and the State of Israel. Moral and ethical values are developed in order that children become good citizens and are taught to have tolerance of different religions, races, and ways of life. The school prides itself on its caring and inclusive policy.

What the school will do:-

- promote a love of and a commitment to Judaism and to Israel
- promote good behaviour at all times, ensuring each child's safety and happiness
- encourage children to do their best at all times
- inform parents regularly of everything going on at school
- maximise opportunities for parents to become involved in the life of the school
- create a stimulating and caring environment for the pupils
- ensure each child has access to the National Curriculum
- always welcome parents who wish to share a personal concern about the child or family circumstances

What the parents will do:-

- support the overall aims, values and Jewish ethos of the school including to ensure only kosher food is brought to school
- ensure that the children attend school regularly, punctually and suitably attired and equipped with all possessions clearly labelled
- make every endeavour to plan holidays in accordance with the school calendar
- advise the school of any absence
- advise the school of any problems that may affect their child's work, behaviour or well-being
- support the school's policies and guidelines for good behaviour and discipline
- ensure that homework is done and returned to school by the required day
- attend the appointed day for parents evenings

With the support of parents, pupils will try:-

- to arrive each day in school uniform on time
- to bring each day their reading book, homework and equipment required for that day
- to keep the class rules and school rules, displayed in all classrooms and around the school
- to do all their class work and homework to the very best of their ability
- to take good care of all school resources, furniture and equipment
- to show respect at all times to everyone in school
